Ten Highlights

New Mexico Rising
The PED is Listening

We heard. We responded.

Regardless of the issue, the PED has been more responsive to stakeholder feedback than ever before.

We are tracking 50+ places where New Mexico is taking direct cues from our school leaders, teachers, parents, civic leaders, and community members.

#1 ESSA Plan in the Nation

The Best State Plan in the country, under ESSA:

Chairman Lamar Alexander invited NM to D.C. earlier this year to talk about how New Mexico’s plan is one of the best plans in the nation, and independent groups agree!

Quote from the hearing:
Chairman Lamar Alexander (Tenn.) said that “Tennessee, Louisiana, and New Mexico have taken the most advantage of the flexibility we offered under the law in creating innovative state plans.”

New Mexico scored the highest in Results 4 America’s recent Most Promising Practices Report!
$42 million in NEW Federal Grants

NM has been awarded a $20 million grant for state-wide literacy initiatives & $22 million grant for strengthening our charter sector.

Federal reviewers said NM’s Striving Readers application was the strongest in the country due to key NM initiatives including: School Grades, PARCC, NMTEACH, Reads to Lead, and K-3 Plus.
Embracing Reform, Getting Results

Embrace Change – Get Results.

Our 15 largest districts are serving more than 60% of students in the state. The following districts have continued to embrace change and are showing strong improvements:

Targeted Investments: Getting Results For Kids

PPE, TPE, Truancy & Dropout Prevention Coaches, AP Fee Waivers, and other “Below-The-Line” programs are working, demonstrating clear student outcomes.

Participation in the programs grows, as do student proficiency rates.
