Description:

The Board Leadership Development Program (BLDP) is a collaborative continuation of the New Board Member Support Program (NBMSP) between the New Mexico School Boards Association and Cooperative Educational Services. The BLD-NBMSP has been designed to provide all new board members elected or appointed in 2019 with a year's worth of sustained support around issues importance to new board members. One of the exciting aspects of BLD-NBMSP is that it will be both face-to-face and Internet-based and will provide no-cost training credit for participants to meet the training requirements.

Goals:

- To help each new board member become acquainted with the roles and responsibilities of board service.
- To have each new board member understand the key work of school boards.
- To assist all new board members throughout their first year of service with personalized support and consultation.
